

Application Guidelines for October 2024 Occupancy
Yokohama National University International Student House
Family room / Married couple room

Student Support Division, YNU

International Student House accepts diverse students not only from Japan but also various countries in the world.

You may be confused by differences in lifestyles and ways of thinking while living together, but it is a good opportunity for the residents to learn diversity, and we expect them to respect each other and grow up together.

1. Eligibility (Should meet conditions below)

※Please do not submit applications for more than one dormitory (International Student House, Minesawa International Student Dormitory, Ooka IR and Tokiwadai IR).
If applicants apply for Ooka IR and Tokiwadai IR before the notice for additional occupancy, their application will be cancelled automatically.

※Occupancy period is 6-month term from April or October. If you stay even for one day during the 6 months, your occupancy record is counted as 6 months.

- (1) International students (except Accredited Auditors and Auditors) currently enrolled at Yokohama National University as of October 1, 2024.
OR International students (except Accredited Auditors and Auditors) scheduled to enroll at Yokohama National University in October 2024.

※International students who have eligibility and have lived in housing need to apply for extending period of occupancy.
※Permission to reside in housing will be terminated if the applicant does not enroll in the university in October 2024 or lose YNU student status.
※Residents who lose their YNU student status must vacate their student housing.
